

The Uncharted EP

Release Date: 13th of September 2025

“The Uncharted EP” is Aveek’s boldest, most emotionally layered project to date. It’s more than a collection of R&B records, it’s a five-track psychological descent into seduction, power dynamics, obsession, and self-confession. This project intentionally walks the line between vulnerability and ego, intimacy and detachment. Each track peels back a different layer of Aveek’s toxic yet magnetic persona, taking listeners through the phases of a chaotic relationship that never truly ends.

The EP is structured like a film. Each song represents a different act in a story with visuals, lyrics, and delivery crafted to spark fan reaction, repeat plays, TikTok virality, and emotional investment.

This will lead to the “Toxic by Nature” album being released in 2026.
